Deceased.

Inland Northwest Honor Flight's mission is to transport Inland Northwest war veterans to Washington D.C. to visit those memorials dedicated to honor their service and sacrifices.

It is estimated that America is losing 1,000-1,200 WWII veterans per day. Time is not on our side and there is a great deal of urgency to raise the necessary funds to take our heroes to see their memorials. Nationally, the Honor Flight Network has a substantial waiting list, and it is up to the regional hubs to plan and execute trips for veterans from each area. Up until May of 2009, the Northwest region did not have an Honor Flight hub. From November of 2009 to November 2010, our hub took 240 veterans to Washington D.C. and there is already a waiting list of another 250 local veterans waiting to go this year. Inland Northwest Honor Flight relies on your tax deductible donations to ensure that these men and women are able to see the memorials to their service and

Support for these trips is provided by volunteers and is at no cost to the veterans. Volunteers act as guardians on the trips to Washington D.C. and ensure that the veterans have a safe and enjoyable trip. Top priority is given to our most senior heroes-survivors of WWII and any veteran with a terminal illness who wishes to visit their memorial. The program will naturally transition to the Korean War, Vietnam War and all other veterans who served, on a chronological basis. Trips are simply not possible without public support. Prior to the Honor Flight Network, many veterans had given up all hope of ever seeing the Word War II Memorial. Now they have hope, but time is not on our side. The time to act is now! We truly believe that the service of our WWII vets and their sacrifices saved the world from oppression and tyranny, and this is our very small way of saying, "Thank You."

Honor Flight relies on the tax deductible donations from caring citizens to cover the cost for these trips; veterans do not pay any part of the costs themselves. Sponsorship from local businesses is also welcome We try to recognize those businesses that provide support so that the rest of the com munity may appreciate their generosity.

Depending on the price of airline tickets at any given time, it costs approximately $700  $\,$ per vet for the trip. Our goal is to take as many veterans as possible to Washington D.C. this year, traveling once a month, April through Novemb
