

SCREAMIN' FUN

Photos by John McCallum

As they do every Halloween, Golden Hills residents transformed their "Street of Dreams" into a "Street of Screams" for Cheney trick-or-treaters. Besides handing out treats, homeowners get into the "spirit" of the evening through decorating their houses and themselves in various themes.

(Above Right, Below) The home of Steve and Kym Grime featured a "Fun, Fun, Toyland" theme that featured their own version of a fun time.

(Top) Using a 1980s theme, Betz Elementary School Principal Carol Lewis hands out candy to a pair of trick or treaters, assisted by her husband Chris (middle) and Betz music director Shaun Kelly (left). (Above Left) They were joined later by Steve Kutsch of Spokane, who showed up dressed as a member of the rock band DEVO.

Candy is in plentiful supply, with Carol Lewis saying they handed out 944 Tootsie Pops alone.