Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

• Seventy-five percent of all sesame seeds grown in Mexico wind up on McDonald's hamburger buns.

• In 1998, a British man faked his own death by leaving his clothes on the beach and hiding to make his wife realize how much she missed him. Unfortunately, the prank backfired, as she divorced him after learning about it.

• Former First Lady Hillary Clinton served on the boards of TCBY and Walmart.

• Earthworms in the northern part of North America are a non-native, invasive species and a major factor in forest deterioration.

• The last duel in Canada wasn't much of a fight at all, being between two men who were so terrified that one fainted and the other was seized by horror. As if that weren't enough, their guns were loaded with blanks.

• Michael Bay, producer of "Friday the 13th," walked out of the film's screening because it contained too much sex.

• Ever wonder why garlic is so anathema to vampires? One theory goes that it's an antibiotic, and since vampirism was often thought to be a disease, it was harmful to them. Another holds that it was believed to repel mosquitoes, and since they're both bloodsuckers, vampires would be repelled as well.

• Brazil has the largest Japanese community outside of Japan.

• A city in Sweden uses light therapy in bus stops to combat depression during the winter when 19 hours of the day are darkness.

• Astronomers have discovered a cloud of fiery gas about 3,000,000 light years across that reaches temperatures in the tens of millions of degrees and gobbles entire galaxies as it moves along.

Now here's a tip!

by Jo Ann Derson

• My dogs stay outside most of the day now, while the weather is so nice. We bring them indoors when it gets too hot, but for a treat, we will freeze a plastic cup of ice and then chuck the giant "ice block" on the porch. They lick at it and play with it. It's like a little doggie waterpark when they are done. —M.E. in Ohio

• Finding a summer camp for your kids can be a chore. Check with your child's school and school friends for recommendations. Also, see if your city's recreation department is holding any camps. Some county extension offices (agriculture department) offer camps. Many of these are reasonably priced. Check into them now.

• I have a tip for you. When pouring water in your coffee pot, use a 4-inch funnel by placing it in the tank. Helps not spill water. Pour slowly! —P.T. in Illinois

• To keep the kitchen garbage can from smelling, put meat, vegetables, fruit and peelings in a bread bag, and put it in the freezer until you take it outside for the garbage collector. —E.L. in Virginia

• Keep fast-food coupons in your car's glove compartment. They will be there if you need to go to a drive-through, and will be handy for picking up dinner on the way home. If you need them at home, chances are your car is there anyway! —F.D. in Alabama
